Plymouth County Commission on the Status of Women and Girls

Public Hearing – April 24, 2019 – 4:30-6:30pm

Plymouth Public Library, Otto Fehlow Room, 132 South Street, Plymouth, MA

Plymouth, MA— April 2, 2019 — The Plymouth County Commission on the Status of Women and Girls (PCCSWG) announces a Regional Public Hearing on the Issues of Women and Girls on Wednesday, April 24, 2019 from 4:30-6:30pm at the Plymouth Public Library, Otto Fehlow Room, and 132 South Street, Plymouth, MA.

Citizens, government officials, and organizations that advocate for or provide services to women and families in the region are invited to share their concerns in both large and small group session. Oral and written testimony will be accepted. Let us know about issues that are important to you, your children, your family and your community. This regional public hearing will allow the PCCSWG to collect testimony and learn about key resources in the area.

Established in 2018, the Plymouth County Commission on the Status of Women and Girls represents all the towns and cities in Plymouth County including: Abington, Bridgewater, Brockton, Carver, Duxbury, East Bridgewater, Halifax, Hanover, Hanson, Hingham, Hull, Kingston, Lakeville, Marion, Marshfield, Mattapoisett, Middleborough, Norwell, Pembroke, Plymouth, Plympton, Rochester, Rockland, Scituate, Wareham, West Bridgewater, and Whitman. The PCCSWG is responsible for studying, reviewing and reporting on the status of women and girls in Plymouth County, and are charged with offering recommendations regarding policy that would improve access to opportunities and equality for women and girls in the region.
